

1. Well, well... look who showed up at the Dakota College Library Circulation desk today. We are happy to see you, Odie!

2. Odie wasted no time and immediately started to explore the stacks. Be careful on that stool, Odie!

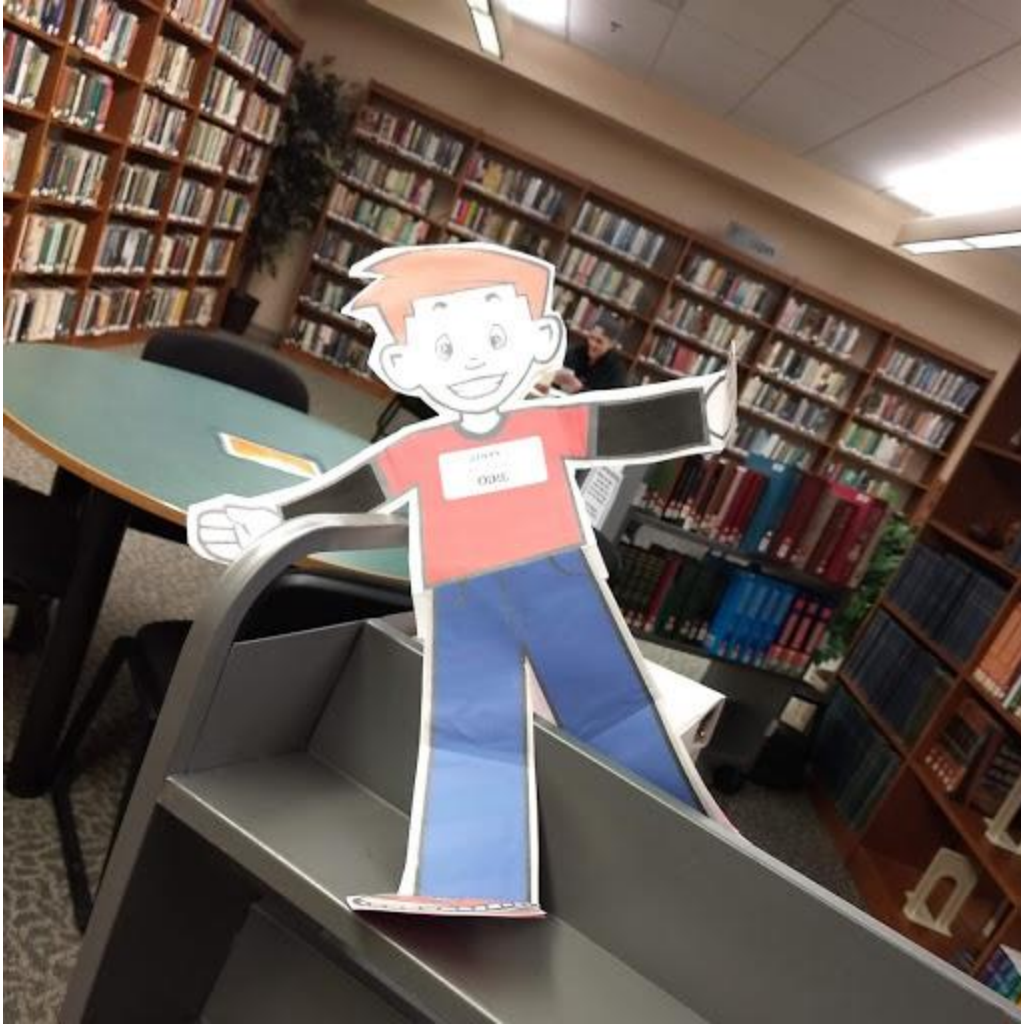

3. Odie got so excited when he heard that DCB was originally the School of Forestry, he shimmied right up this tree!

4.

Odie loves new books, and silver sculptures too.

5

Odie had a great time cruising around on the book truck. Whee!

6. Okay, Odie. That is not exactly appropriate use of the copy machine.

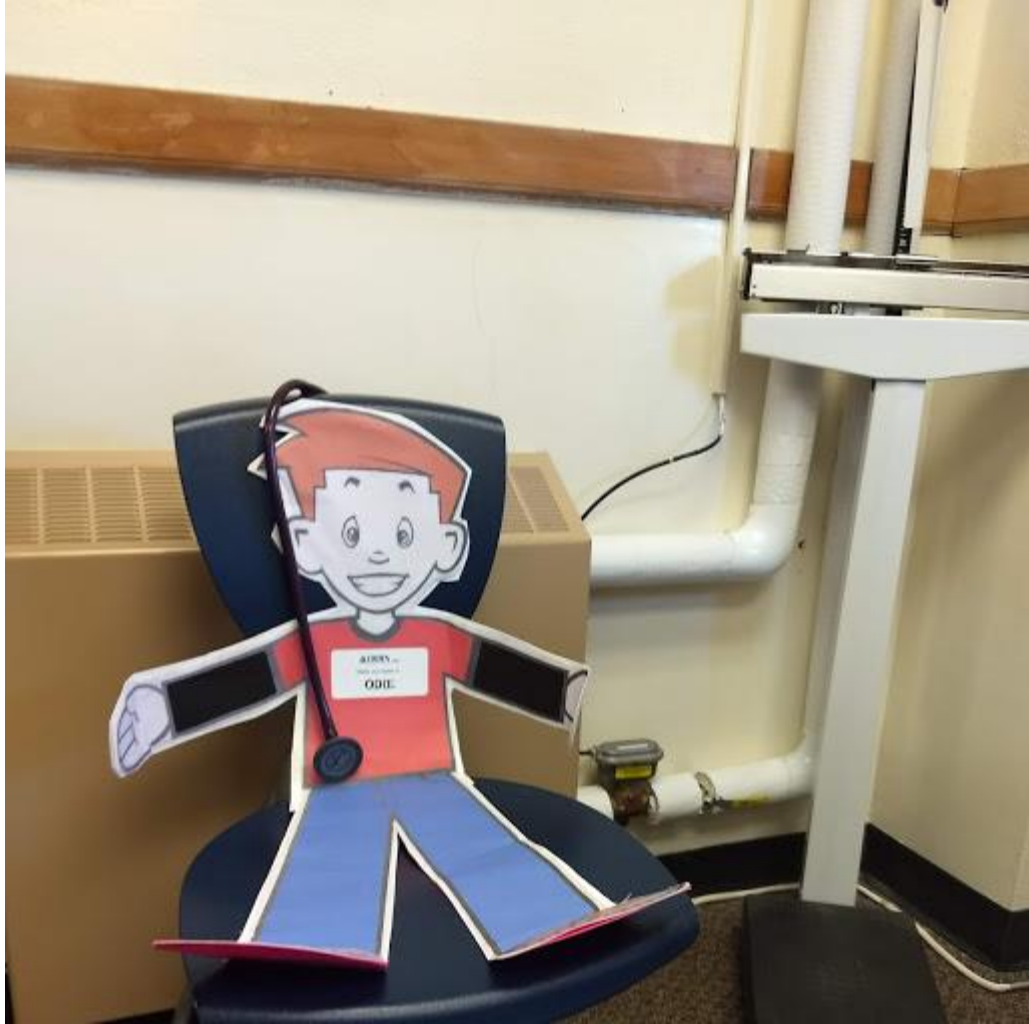

6. Odie wanted a look around campus, so we went to DCB Bookstore, where he tried on this sweet Jacks T-shirt.

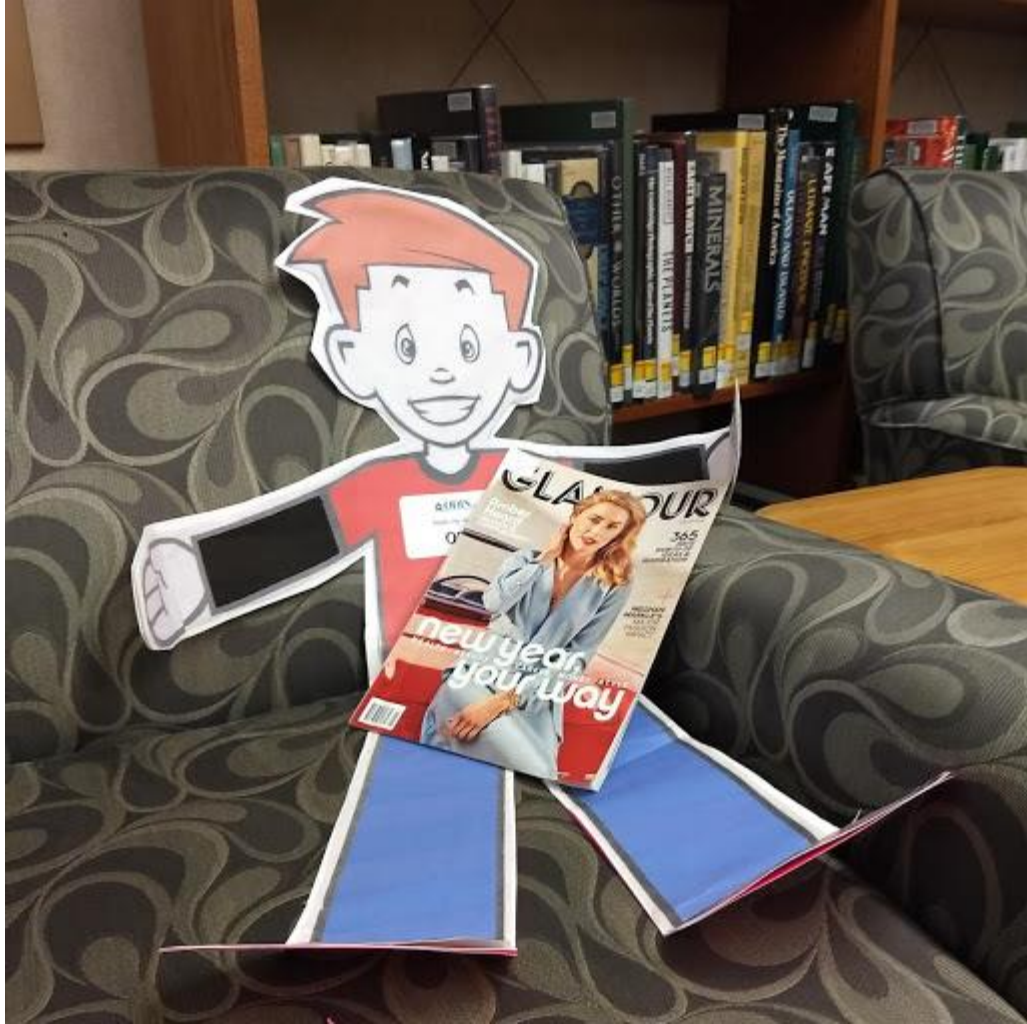

7. Next stop was the Student Success Center where Odie left his mark on the whiteboard.

8.
Whoa! Come back here, Odie!

9. After that wild ride, we thought it best to stop in and visit the Campus Nurse's office. Don't worry, Odie is fine...though he may be a bit of an adrenaline junkie.

10. Odie is finally running out of steam. He picked out some light reading and settled into a comfy chair.

11. We sure loved having you here with us at Dakota College, Odie. Where in the world will Odie next appear?
